VOICE OF KVIM IQAC

It is with a deep sense of pride and felicity that we present to you the annual IQAC newsletter of the year 2023. The college firmly believes that education must go beyond the mere impartation of knowledge and skills to teach the students a sense of social responsibility.

KVIM is consistently working towards realigning the resources and processes to meet the demands of the corporate requirements. Addressing quality in all its processes is a key concern. Some of the activities of IQAC which we carried out with great expectation, include Capacity Building Programmes, Meet the Alumni where we have invited Eminent resource persons from industry and academia enrich the knowledge and skills of the students and faculty members and also seek possibilities for MoUs and other possible collaborations.

Many outreach programmes were organized during this year where the nearby community is benefitted. In the year 2023, the teaching-learning methods have been constantly upgraded to keep pace with the dynamic landscape of management education.

IQAC also organized a Faculty Induction Programme on Quality Sustenance to give the faculty insights on NAAC documentation. The Institutional Information for Quality Assessment (IIQA) for NAAC accreditation was filed in the NAAC portal.

The current issue of the IQAC newsletter highlights the activities, accomplishments, and teaching advancements that have taken place in KVIM in the year 2023. We invite you to dive into the newsletter and witness the calibre and achievements of our students and faculty members. We hope that you enjoy reading our newsletter as much as we enjoyed.
